Phoenix, AZ (PRWEB) November 14, 2007 – Divorce Mediation: Myths & Facts, the first show of its kind in the country, educates and informs listeners about mediation - the legal alternative to the expensive battle of divorce litigation. Less than a year old, the show is already proving to be a tremendous success. In its first 10 months the show more than tripled its listening audience, unprecedented growth according to show producer Brian Travis.

"Mediation is turning the legal system upside down as more and more people recognize the limitations and costs associated with litigation," says creator and host Philip Mulford, J.D., a professional mediator since 1990 and formerly a practicing attorney. "This show sheds light on an alternative that keeps divorcing couples out of court and saves them thousands of dollars. Despite those benefits and growing awareness, mediation is still often misunderstood and underutilized."

This fall the show received the endorsement of the Association of Attorney-Mediators, a national organization promoting the highest ethics, standards of training, and qualifications for attorney-mediators. According to AAM National President Trey Bergman, "For any couple considering divorce, Divorce Mediation: Myths & Facts clarifies the many advantages of mediation over litigation and explains the importance of using a professional attorney-mediator qualified to handle the most challenging issues of divorce."

On Thursday, November 15, 2007, Mr. Mulford will be joined by Mr. Bergman as a special guest on the show. Like Mr. Mulford, Mr. Bergman was a successful attorney, in fact, he was a former litigator. Since 2001, Bergman has devoted himself exclusively to mediation and arbitration. Together they will discuss the highly successful process of divorce mediation and the importance of choosing a qualified, professional mediator with a strong legal background.

The show airs live on Thursday, November 15, 2007, at 2:00 p.m. ET on www.modavox.com/voiceamerica. All prior shows are archived and are available on demand for listening or for download to an MP3 and Ipod.

One of the top divorce mediators in the country, Mr. Mulford has helped hundreds of divorcing couples reach mutually acceptable agreements even in seemingly impossible situations.
